GENERAL.

No. G 12072—G. M. 529-17-2, dated 4th March 1918.

The following Press-Communique dated 8th February 1918, issued by the Government of India in the Department of Commerce and Industry, is republished for general information.

The following extract from the London Gazette, dated the 4th December 1917, is published for general information:—

British cargoes ex enemy vessels in United States Ports.

His Majesty's Ambassador at Washington reports that he has received the following information from the United States Government as regards the procedure to be followed by claimants for the release of British cargo ex enemy vessels in United States Ports:—

British consignees who desire to have the merchandise entered for consumption should furnish to such persons as they desire to represent them at the particular port at which goods may happen to be a duly endorsed Bill of Lading and the original invoice covering the consignments. If, on the other hand, it is desired to export the merchandise, it may be entered for warehouse, and immediate exportation without the presentation of a bill of lading or invoice, but on the production to the Customs Officers of satisfactory evidence to act in the matter. In case of exportation of merchandise an export license will probably be required."
